THE CHALLENGE:

There are over 3,500 children and young adults under the jurisdiction of the Dependency Court in Orange County - which is overburdened and underfunded. The Dependency Court hears cases about children (minors) who are abused or neglected

The average judge handles more than 800 cases per year; the average social worker carries up to 40 cases at one time, and an attorney may have over 100 cases at any moment

1 in 5 former youth in dependency will become homeless within one year of emancipating

Only 58% of youth in dependency will graduate from high school.

By the age of 24, more than 50% of former youth in dependency will be unemployed.

THE SOLUTION:

ADVOCACY

- In court advocacy and recommendations
- Educational Advocacy & Individual Education Program (IEP) Assessments
- Trauma-Informed Advocacy
- Mental Health Advocacy (assessments & therapeutic treatments)
- Family Connections Advocacy
- Early intervention support to prevent long term foster care status

MENTORSHIP

- Two year commitment
- Outings twice a month with the child

THE CASA IMPACT

A child with a CASA volunteer is more likely to have better outcomes: children tended to perform better academically and behaviorally in school as measured by whether or not they passed all of their courses, whether or not they were expelled, and their conduct performance.

OC children in foster care with a CASA advocate have a 92% high school graduation rate, compared to the 58% national average

A child with a CASA volunteer is half as likely to re-enter the child welfare system and more likely to achieve permanent placement

In four out of five dependency cases, all or almost all CASA volunteer recommendations are accepted by the court
