One Caring Adult Can HELP Make A Difference

CASA

Court Appointed Special Advocates
FOR CHILDREN

ORANGE COUNTY

THE REALITY FOR YOUTH IN FOSTER CARE

Approximately 3,000 children and young adults in Orange County's Dependency Court system rely on an overextended child welfare system. Judges, social workers, and attorneys manage overwhelming caseloads - leaving limited time to focus on each child's individual needs.

WHY CASA

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Orange County trains and supports volunteers to stand beside youth in the foster care system. CASA volunteers build consistent, trusted relationships—amplifying a child's voice, collaborating with professionals, and advocating for their needs to ensure no child navigates the system alone. Our strengths-based HELP model guides volunteers in helping children build stability, confidence, and the life skills needed to thrive.

HOW CASA SUPPORTS CHILDREN

Health

Supporting physical, mental, and emotional well-being

Education

Guiding academic success, lifelong learning and enrichment

Life Skills

Building confidence for independence and adulthood

Permanency

Nurturing safe relationships and supporting stable placements

THE CASA IMPACT

50% less likely to reenter foster care

96% graduate from high school

compared to 58% without a CASA

4 out of 5 cases
Courts accept all or nearly all CASA recommendations.

YOUR SUPPORT MAKES THIS POSSIBLE

Community support ensures CASA volunteers are trained, guided, and sustained - allowing more children to have a consistent adult advocate focused on their safety, stability, and future.
